

46) login into

- a) Network computer system : The act of logging into a database.

47) log out

- a) Log out is also known as log off
b) Sign off or Sign out

48) look out

- to be careful or to pay attention to something dangerous
- She must look out for her health.

49) pay off

- a) profit, Reward
b) To be successful
- All her hard work has paid off! she passed her exam.

50) pay fall

If someone or something fails

51) Take out

- a) escort someone to a social event
- "I took her out to dinner the following night."
  - b) Obtain an official document or service.
"You can take out a loan for specific purchase."

46) login into

a) Network computer system : The act of logging into a database.

47) log out

a) Log out is also known as log off

b) Sign off or Sign out

48) look out

a) To be careful or to pay attention to something dangerous

- She must look out for her health.

49) pay off

a) profit, Reward

b) To be Successful

- All her hard work has paid off! She passed her exam.

50) pay foul

If someone or something fails

51) Take out

a) escort someone to a social event

- "I took her out to dinner the following night."

b) Obtain an official document or service.

"You can take out a loan for specific purchase."

52) Turn around
Turn can also mean to change or transform

53) Turn off
a) The place where a road leads away from a larger or more important road
- This is the turn-off for Shimla.

54) Warm up
a) To prepare to do an activity or sport by practising gently
- The team warmed up before the match.

55) Grow up
a) To develop into an adult; to mature
- What do you want to be when you grow up?
b) (used about a feeling etc.) To develop or become strong
- A close friendship has grown up between them.

56) Hang on
a) To wait for a short time
- Hang on a minute. I'm nearly ready.
b) To hold something tightly
- Hang on, don't let go!

57) Hang out
a) get together or do something
b) It almost always means going out on a date

58) kick out
 - expel or dismiss Someone
 "my parents kicked me out when I was 18"

59) Let in
 a) To allow Someone OR something to enter
 - She opened the door and let me in.

60) Look after
 a) Take care of Someone or Something.
 - "meg is expected to come straight home from School and look after her younger sisters!"

61) look faw
 - To drop down towards the ground.

62) Look up
 a) To move your eyes upward to look at somebody or something. → She looked up and smiled.
 b) To improve
 - Business is looking up.

63) make up
 a) To forgive someone and be friendly with them after an argument or disagreement
 - They kissed and mad up, as usual

64) pay back
 a) The period of time required to get your money back.
 - A Five - years payback

b) The advantage Somebody receives for something they have done OR the act of paying something back.

65) pick up

a) To become better OR To improve

b) lift them

66) put off

a) postpone something

- "They can't put off a decision much longer"

b) Cause someone to lose interest

- "She wanted to be a nurse but the thought of night shifts put her off."

67) put out

a) extinguish something that is burning.

b) lay something out ready for use.

- "She put out glasses and paper napkins."

68) put on

a) place a garment, piece of work Jewellery etc. on part of one's body.

- "Julie had put on a cotton dress."

69) put up with

a) Tolerate or endure something

- "I'm too tired to put up with any nonsense."

13

b) The advantage somebody receives for something they have done OR the act of paying something back.

65) pick up

a) To become better OR To improve

b) lift them

66) put off

a) postpone something

- "They can't put off a decision much longer."

b) Cause someone to lose interest

- "She wanted to be a nurse but the thought of night shifts put her off."

67) put out

a) extinguish something that is burning.

b) lay something out ready for use.

- "She put out glasses and paper napkins."

68) put on

a) place a garment, piece of work jewellery etc. on part of one's body.

- "Julie had put on a cotton dress."

69) put up with

a) Tolerate or endure something

- "I'm too tired to put up with any nonsense!"

70) run out

- a) (of a supply of something) be used up.
- "Our food is about to run out."

71) Take off

- a) (used about an aircraft) to leave the ground and start flying
- b) (used about an idea, a product etc) to become successful or popular very quickly or suddenly

72) Turn on

- a) Start the flow or operation of something by means of a tap
- b) switch OR button
- "She turned on the TV."

73) Turn up

- a) To arrive ; to appear
- What time did they finally turn up?
- b) To be found, especially by chance
- I lost my glasses a week ago and they haven't turned up yet.

74) wait up

- a) Not go to bed until someone arrives or something happens.
- I'll be back late. Don't wait up for me!
- b) go more slowly or stop until someone catches up.
- "The kids bound out of sight, and I shout

"Wait up!"

75) watch out

a) To be careful because of possible danger or trouble

- watch out! There is a car coming.

76) break up

a) The termination of a relationship

b) To start school holidays

- when do you break up for the summer holidays?

77) walk out

a) depart or leave suddenly or angrily

- "he had walked out in a temper."

b) Dating someone

78) Bring on

a) encourage someone who is learning something to develop or improve

- "Mr Eden thought well of him, and was bringing him on."

79) Bring it on

a) used to express confidence in meeting a challenge.

80) call on

a) pay a visit to someone

- "he's planning to call on Katherine today"

Date:

Page No:

b) make use of someone or something as a source of help.
- "we are able to call on academic staff with a wide variety of expertise".

81) Check in
a) The act of checking in at an airport.
- Our check-in time is 10.30 a.m.

82) Cheer on
a) To encourage (someone) with shouts or cheers.

83) Cheer up
a) become less miserable
"he cheered up at the sight of the food."

84) Clear on easy to see, hear or understand.
- His voice wasn't very clear on the telephone.